Datasheet

BigHand Quantum

Stay ahead of the competition, stay productive and profitable, and drive efficiencies across your organisation with BigHand Quantum.

Overview

Within your PMS, there already exists huge amounts of highly valuable data. But harnessing it can be costly and time-consuming.

Don't waste time and money wrestling your data - BigHand Quantum delivers easy, actionable intelligence. Slice and dice key information, drill down to the detail, and give your teams the autonomy of access they need.

Easy integration

BigHand Quantum works with all legal PMS, existing reporting and other line of business systems.

No training needed

Intuitive dashboards are core to the BigHand Quantum service, giving users access to coherent information tailored to their specific needs without any training requirements.

Modules

Every BigHand Quantum module includes source connectors to the PMS, a MS SQL data warehouse specific to the relevant module, and a set of customisable dashboard templates that can be delivered using Microsoft SSRS or other dashboard providers such as Tableau or Qlik.
