

BigHand Now. Delegate. Collaborate. Eliminate.

When Fee-Earners are struggling with heavy workloads, doesn't it make sense for them to use the right tools to delegate and track their tasks efficiently?

Yes - of course it does!

BigHand Now is a task delegation tool that makes it easy to digitise and delegate any kind of task to the team that's best skilled to complete it.

"With BigHand Now we're using less hours in support work and we're only paying for the skills we need, so costs have reduced significantly"

John O'Connor,
IT Manager,

The Business case

BigHand Now offers significant time and cost savings for legal firms processing high volumes of work on a daily basis. It streamlines the task delegation process like never before allowing everyone to work together, regardless of which team they're in or where their office is based.

With BigHand Now, users can get tasks to the right people for processing in a matter of clicks and can get rid of to-do lists, spreadsheets and shared inboxes. Fee-Earners can dedicate their time to client-focused, revenue generating work; support staff can manage their workload more effectively to get more done and management can see exactly what is happening within their firm and ensure that resources are optimised.

With BigHand Now Fee-Earners can enlist the help of support staff from any department, regardless of where they, or the support teams are based. Regardless of the type of work that needs doing, Fee-Earners, or anyone working on their behalf - can capture tasks digitally and enter them into a central workflow to be picked up and processed by the right team, quickly and easily.

With BigHand Now Fee-Earners can:

- Focus on higher value tasks that requires expertise or specialist knowledge
- Get more done in the same amount of time by making the best use of resources
- Simplify and speed up task delegation across departments and offices

With BigHand Now Secretaries can:

- Track tasks easily from one central workflow and see who's working on what
- Manage time and workload much more easily
- Work more independently without needing extra information to complete a task
